

First Title CEE wins "Title Insurance Provider of the Year" Award

4th November 2014

We are delighted to announce that First Title Central Eastern Europe has won 'Title Insurance Provider of the year' at EuropaProperty's 4th annual CEE Investment and Green Building Awards which took place at Warsaw's InterContinental hotel.

The awards recognise and reward excellence in investment, development and sustainability throughout the CEE region. The award for Title Insurance provider of the year was considered as part of the company of the year category. The 50 strong judging panel were asked to consider the overall market contribution, quality of customer services, market innovation, commercial success leadership and market penetration and it found that First Title CEE lead the way in 2014.

Andrew Jackson, Managing Director, First Title CEE commented "The CEE team has worked incredibly hard this year to ensure that we are consistently offering our business partners a tier one product alongside a tier one service. It is immensely rewarding to see that all of our hard work and effort has been recognised. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank both the team and also our clients for a fantastic year".
