

First Title Appointed as CLT Scotland Affinity Partner

17th February 2015

CLT Scotland has launched an affinity partnership scheme for the benefit of their members with First Title Insurance plc becoming the inaugural affinity partner. Roy Spiers, CLT Scotland's Director of Programmes said, "As one of the most well-established providers in the legal market, it is vital to our ongoing strategy that we align ourselves with those organisations who also seek to provide Scotland's legal profession with the solutions that they require to sustain and grow their businesses. Affinity partnership enables us to negotiate with leading organisations to provide real benefits for our members. I am delighted that First Title Insurance has agreed to become our property affinity partner and I look forward to working more closely with Liana and the team for the benefit of our membership."

The first affinity partnership benefit has been announced - during 2015 all new and renewing CLT members (and their employees) will be able to benefit from a free webinar, worth one hour of CPD training, provided by an experienced First Title underwriter.

Liana Di Ciacca, Senior Underwriter at First Title Insurance said "At a time when the Scottish legal market faces unprecedented changes, we feel that it is important to our business strategy to work closely with a dynamic training partner. This partnership offers us the ability to interact more with the profession and assist with their ongoing development requirements."

Roy Spiers continued "I am looking forward to developing more benefits for our membership over the coming months that match the quality of the webinar provided by First Title Insurance plc."
