

First Title Insurance continues to lead the way

12th October 2015

First Title Insurance plc is delighted to announce the promotions of Ben Baker, Lauren Kay and Will Goodwin to the role of commercial underwriter. All three started their underwriting careers with First Title and have excelled through its specialist training and development programme.

First Title is renowned for selecting exceptional individuals and has recently recruited Daniella Strazzer, Matthew Bouette, Luis Ylquimiche and Alexandra Towers to join its graduate scheme. The scheme will allow the graduates to launch their underwriting careers within the London commercial team which is renowned for its talent and specialised expertise throughout the legal indemnity insurance market.

Kevin Dick, chief operating officer, said, "Talent management is a vital part of our overall business strategy. Recruiting the right staff is paramount for our company as our clients rely on our premium service and specialist underwriting knowledge. The team promotions and our recent graduate recruiting ensures that First Title will continue to lead the way."
